

Neha

Purpose

This form is intended for researchers, organizations, and others to provide a summary of any report they have prepared that will be submitted to the Neha review panel.

Instructions

- Please complete any applicable questions and email this form, the written submission form and any reports you are summarizing to: neha@infcc.gc.ca.
- Written submissions will be accepted until 14 March 2025.

Report Summary

1. Citation

Please indicate the report's title, authors, publication venue, date, link, number of pages, and any other bibliographic information. Please enter at most 100 words.

2. Relevance and summary

Please briefly explain how this report relates to the topic Neha members are examining: The Right to Safe, Adequate and Affordable Housing for Women, Two Spirit, Trans, and Gender-Diverse People, and the Government's Duty to Uphold this Right. Provide a brief summary of the purpose of this research/report, the results, critical information and conclusion. Please enter at most 200 words.

3. Methodology & information sources

What were the methods and information sources used to complete this report? (e.g. literature review, case studies, legal and human rights analysis, secondary data, surveys, interviews, lived experience, participatory research, etc.) Who was involved, and what role did they play? (e.g. what individuals or organizations led the research, and who participated). Please enter at most 200 words.

4. Overview of key findings

What were the major results/findings concerning the right to safe, adequate and affordable housing for women, Two Spirit, Trans, and gender-diverse people, and the government's duty to uphold this right? Where possible, please link the findings to the guiding questions of Neha:

Vision: What is your vision for safe, adequate, and affordable housing for women, Two Spirit, Trans, and gender-diverse people?

Knowledge: What knowledge can be used to inform or support this vision?

Reason: Why is this vision important?

Action: What actions are needed to make this vision a reality?

Please enter at most 500 words.

5. Key recommendations

What were the main recommendations of this report concerning the right to safe, adequate and affordable housing for women, Two Spirit, Trans, and gender-diverse people, and the government's duty to uphold this right? Please use a bulleted list, and indicate to whom each recommendation is addressed (e.g. federal, provincial, territorial or municipal governments; Indigenous governments and organizations; service providers; community members; etc.).

Please enter at most 500 words.

6. Gaps

Please indicate any unanswered questions, unresolved issues in the report that might be interesting to examine (i.e. perspectives of specific groups/communities affected by the issue, disagreement on solutions that could be explored further, etc.). Please enter at most 200 words.

7. Key words (optional)

Please indicate up to 10 keywords or phrases related to this report that may facilitate a quick search for other relevant studies. Please enter at most 30 words.

8. Privacy & confidentiality

Does the report contain any personal information that could identify a specific person, organization or community (e.g, name, address, contact information, identifying characteristics, opinion, etc.)?

- Yes, the report contains personal information.
- No, the report does not contain personal information.

If yes, do you have consent from the person or community to share this information?

- Yes, I have consent from the person, organization or community.
- No, I do not have consent from the person, organization or community.